

Are you sure your student is reading well?

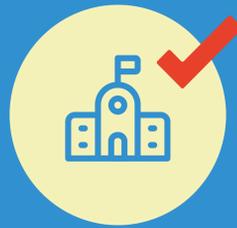

Early help is essential. Ask these questions for reading success.

1 How do you know if your student is on track with reading?

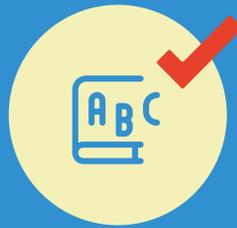

You have a right to know how your student is doing and to check on their progress

Get school records

Visit the classroom

Understand curriculum

2 How do you know your student is getting what they need?

You have a right to have your student screened for reading problems

Ask for more tests

Meet with the school

Get help early

3 What should intervention look like?

You have a right to goals that are clear, specific and measurable

-  Understandable
-  Based on data
-  Ambitious

You have a right to interventions and other supports that work

-  Consistent
-  Effective
-  Evidence-based

4 How do you know if your student is improving?

You have a right to appropriate progress monitoring

Monitoring is frequent

Monitoring is consistent

... and shared with families

